

Hello People-Friends!

Thank you for making me such a great den to hide in. It was lovely and dark, but the paper was a wee bit tickly. When I was sleeping I kept waking up giggling, I hope I didn't wake you up too?

Is there something else you could try in my bed instead? Maybe a comfy cushion?

It's really fun living with you, but I really miss you all when you go out. Could you draw me a picture of you both so that I can put it inside my den?

Be ROARSOME! Xx

I drew a picture for you of me and my yeti friend.
