

Hello People-Friends!

You've worked really hard to make me feel at home - THANK YOU!! There have been a few things to change, but you learned what didn't work so you could try again until you got it right.

Mistakes aren't bad or scary ... they're

MARVELLOUS!!

Why don't you have a marvellous mistakes night and do everything wrong or backwards?

You'll soon find out that mistakes are just a try, they're not a worry, and nothing bad happens when you make them.

I can't wait to watch you having fun!!

Be ROARSOME xx
